"Polly of the Follies"

COMING NEXT WEEK

The Best One of Them All

In two acts, prepared by Olga Printzau, from the story by Marshall Stedman in which Miss Madison poses as a cowboy, but doesn't fool the ranchman, who falls in love with her. Animated Weekly No. 193 is also shown.

Tomorrow "Chills and Chikens," a comedy, will also be a notable offering.

Cecil B. De Mille, the Lasky-Paramount director general, is just completing "The Golden Touch," in which Cleo Ridgely and Wallace Reid are to be co-starred.

The De Loss Musical Comedy Company is still packing them in at the Odeon and each day shows an increase in attendance regardless of weather.
The company is presenting a very clever show.

The big hits are the Spencer trio and Louie Kleine, a comedian. The trio has been compelled to respond to five and six encores at each performance while Mr. Kleine keeps the house in a roar of laughter with his original stunts.

LOCAL TEAM

Defeated by Salem Bowlers in Close and Exciting Game Rolled Here.

The Salem duck pin team trimmed the L. M. P. alley second team in a hotly contested game rolled on the L. M. P. alleys here Thursday night, by a total of twenty-three pins.

The Salem team took the lead in the first game, winning it by two pins. In the second game the local team went bad and although the Salem team rolled only an ordinary game it gained thirty-five pins, making its lead forty-seven pins when the last game started. Captain "Whitey" Michotte braced his boys in the final game and although they pined up a large score, the Salem team also rolled better than in any of other games of the evening and the best the locals could do was to pick up twenty-eight of the forty-seven pins they were behind, losing by twenty-three pins.

Lynch, of the Salem team, had high average for the content and Michotte had high individual score.

WRESTLING CHAMPION

Frank Gotch May Re-enter the Game and Meet Joe Steck-er of Nebraska.

Close followers of professional sport are of the opinion that a carefully planned campaign is under way to smoke out Frank Gotch, the retired wrestling champion, Joe Stecker, of Dodge, Neb., the sensational young grappler, is apparently the candidate the promoters have in mind as opponent for the originator of the famous toe hold. The preliminary work has all the earmarks of the campaign which preceded the matching of Jim Jeffries and Jack Johnson. It is possible, however, that if these two wrestlers meet on the mat and that the bout will develop better wrestling than the Johnson-Jeffries bout did fighting.

Stecker is about twenty-three years of age and has shown remarkable strength and grappling ability in his short mat career. Rival wrestlers, who are never keen to praise an opponent, declare that he is a marvel.
Gotch, while considerably older, is far from being a weakling. Since wrestlers do not desert to the strength or grappling skill as rapidly as pugil-ists, it may be that Gotch will listen in due time to the promoters' proposals, although to date he has been deaf to the opportunities of a host of foreign Goliaths.

FOOTBALL SUPREMACY

May Not Be Decided by a Process of Mathematical Deductions.

The question of football supremacy between rival teams is likely to be decided by a process of mathematical deductions in the future. Rutgers has declared for the fore with the statement that its team gained 2,021 yards from 463 scrimmage plays, during the last season, showing an average gain of about five yards per play. Nebraska claims to lead both East and West in average number of points per game. It may develop that the plan proposed some years ago to give a varying value to the touchdown, depending upon the distance covered during the march to the score, will yet find its way to a place in the football code.

CHINESE ATHLETES

Are Trying to Make Track Team at University of Michigan.

University of Michigan track officials are keenly interested in the efforts of two Chinese students to make the varsity slender squad. S.
C. Hung is a sprinter of no mean ability, while W. D. Wong has already vaulted better than ten feet.
The latter is a freshman, who will not be eligible for another year and it is thought that he will be able to add close to two feet to his vault before he enters the sophomore class.
Both of these Chinese athletes received their preliminary training at Tsing Hua College at Peking and they are said to be as far advanced

Any way you may look at it, the Nebraska record is one to be proud of. During the last five years the "Cornhuskers" have played thirty-nine games, of which but two have been lost, both defeats being at the hands of Minnesota. In these thirty-nine games Nebraska has totaled 1-

Scene from "The Blindness of Virtue," Feature Screen Offering Today and Tomorrow at the Robinson Grand.

film will be shown Saturday also.
Mr. Mantell, perhaps the greatest living exponent of Shakespearean drama, summed up his reason for leaving the legitimate drama by saying he had no fault to find with the public as it had supported him loyally for many years, but today he interesting the American ladies at the present time. The film treats of a wife's independence of her husband in the management of family finance.

About this responsive theme has been built a drama of surpassing power. A Pathe News and a comedy are also shown.

The Saturday feature will be "The Inner Chamber," a fine picture with lots of thrills and snappy action. Two comedies are included in Saturday's bill.

The feature offering today at the Star is Miss Cleo Madison in "The Ring of Destiny," a western drama
